

TOOL BOX “Let’s find some ruins of the roman empire”

Describing ruins	Practising archeology	Talking about History and time
Constructions garden courtyard thermal baths sewers: égouts aqueduct fountain remains/traces: vestiges	Identifying (to) draw a map (to) read a plan (to) spot/localise (to) identify the remains (to) distinguish urban/rural areas	Expressing time These remains date from B.C: Before Christ A.D: Ante Diem: après J.C in the 15th century 500 years ago: il y a 500 ans Since the roman empire For decades: pendant des décennies
hydrography path: chemin channel: canal reservoir flow: courant, flux gutter: caniveau spring: source thermal/drinking water water network: réseau hydraulique alluvial water	Measuring <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - this wall is 2 meters high - this channel is 1 km long - this basin is 10 meters deep 	Historical eras -Antiquity adj: antique -Middle-Ages adj: medieval - Contemporary era
	Reporting (to)take a picture of (to)report in an article/podcast

