

N.B. : les exemples ci-dessous sont déconnectés entre eux et ne constitueraient pas une proposition de sujet en soi ; ce sont des possibilités pour l'entraînement.

	Situations et actes de la vie quotidienne, personnelle, sociale et citoyenne	Situations et actes de la vie professionnelle
Réagir à une problématique d'ordre général	➤ The planet is in danger. On a daily basis, what can we do every day to improve the situation? Answer with concrete examples.	➤ You wish to make proposals to the management of your company to reduce its environmental impact. Gives ideas of simple actions and habits that employees can put in place on a daily basis.
	➤ Can we spend good holidays with no mobile phone ? Answer this question by giving concrete examples.	➤ Are mobile phones and new technologies obstacles or an advantage in your professional practices? Answer with concrete examples.
	➤ You witness sexist behavior in your school, so you decide to write an article recalling the principles of gender equality.	➤ Are men and women equal in the working world? Answer this question by giving examples.
	➤ Does listening to music benefit general well-being? Answer with your own experience.	➤ Does music allow concentration and productivity in the company? What do you think?
	➤ Do connected objects improve our lives? Give an answer to this question and illustrate your point with examples.	➤ Do you think that mastering digital technologies is now essential in the working world?
	➤ Can we say that living in the city makes you happier? Answer this question and share your point of view.	➤ Do you think job opportunities with professional advancement are only concentrated in big cities? React to this subject and give your opinion.
	➤ Can we regularly eat fast food without endangering our health? Answer this question and develop your point of view.	➤ Many companies have their own canteens to offer a proper lunch to their employees. Suggest actions and ideas to improve the quality of meals for a healthier life at work.
	➤ For you, what does "succeeding in life" mean? Answer this question by giving concrete examples.	➤ Do internships represent the reality of working life? Give your opinion and illustrate your point with examples.

Réagir à une problématique d'ordre général	➤ Do you think it is useful to install surveillance cameras in your school? Illustrate your opinion with examples.	➤ Would you be willing to work in a company that uses surveillance cameras to monitor you? Answer with concrete examples.
	➤ Can we improve our practice of languages without going abroad?	➤ When you apply for a job, recruiters are particularly attentive to the mastery of foreign languages. Explain the reasons and give arguments confirming the importance of languages in the world of work.
	➤ You use your phone everyday. Imagine a day with no connection, how would you feel? What would you do?	➤ Working from home has developed a lot and cuts social relations, but is this still true? Answer with concrete examples.
	➤ Can new technologies lead to addiction ? Give arguments and examples of apps you use the most.	➤ Your jobs are in danger. Are robots going to steal your jobs? React to this assertion and give your point of view. Answer by using arguments and examples.
	➤ Your little brother/sister is a big user of social media. What can you tell him/her about the dangers of them? Give examples.	➤ Do you think the use of social media is a threat within the company, among employees? Answer this question and justify the dangers of social media in the relationships between employees.
	➤ Can the government force supermarkets to change their packaging to avoid any form of plastic? Give an answer to this question. Develop your point with examples.	➤ Create a menu exclusively based on local ingredients and explain why it is better both for the planet and for you.
	➤ English: a necessary language. What can you do in your everyday life to improve your English level?	➤ On average, nowadays, we change professions 2 to 3 times in our lifetime. What do you think the reasons are?